

Wedding Day 2:59

On this our wedding day
I see you, in a light I never knew
And like a fresh bouquet
A love in bloom,
Brings life to empty rooms
I can't say, I can't say
I don't love you, I do
But I can say,
That I will stay
And will spend my whole life with you
So now we're on our way
And with a kiss
On our lips a solemn promise
And all our dreams come true
Each one for me
A million more for you
I can't say, I can't say
I don't love you, I do
But I can say,
That I will stay
And will spend my whole life with you
So now we're on our way
And with a kiss
On our lips a solemn promise
And all our dreams come true
Each one for me
A million more for you
